Conditions for admission, entrance exam and criteria for its evaluation
(update for admissions from 1.10.2021)

Pursuant to Article 6 of the Statute of the Czech Technical University in Prague and in connection with a possible problematic health and safety situation in the Czech Republic, following the effectiveness of Act No. 495/2020 of 19 November 2020 amending Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions and on Amendments to Other Acts (Act on Higher Education Institutions), as amended, further conditions are defined for the admission procedure:

1. Admission to doctoral studies is decided by the admissions committee on the basis of the application and other mandatory appendices listed on the application for study.
2. Applicants for doctoral study programs may be invited by the chairperson of the Specialist Advisory board (SAB) after submitting the application to a remote interview or a face-to-face interview, depending on the possibilities of the current health and safety situation.
3. Applicants must choose a topic among the currently offered framework of topics in the application procedure (open topics – without the choice of supervisor in advance - can be chosen freely, while agreed topics – already set by supervisors – can only be confirmed after the acceptance by the supervisor).
4. In exceptional cases, the Dean may announce an extraordinary date of the entrance examination for other persons interested in studying in accredited doctoral study programs. The announcement of the extraordinary date of the entrance exam is published on the official board of the CTU FTS.

The date of the admission procedure will be announced no later than 15 days in advance on the faculty's website.

Decision on the admission and enrollment in the study program

According to § 51, article 1 of The Higher Education Act No. 111/1998 and the amendment of other acts, right for enrolment is granted to applicant by notification on decision of acceptance. The faculty will inform accepted applicants of the enrolment date and time along with the decision of acceptance into studies.

The candidate will receive a decision on the result of the admission procedure in a registered letter by post in his / her own hands no later than 30 days from the date of the entrance examination.

In Prague, approved by the Academic Senate of CTU FTS on 11 May 2021.
